

Colburn House
582-7080

Arnold Expedition Historical Society

Box 1775, Gardiner, Maine 04345

Jannice Baker, Sec'y
582-3648

June 16, 1989

Newsletter No. 63
Members & Friends of the A.E.H.S.

Welcome to Our 21st Year

Our year now officially begins on January 1st - same as the calendar. This makes it easier to keep track of when our membership dues should be paid. The Treasurer likes this. But no one has reminded you yet of our financial need.

We have $292.38 in the checking account and about $1,000.00 of insurance bills coming up. Please send a check, quick! Dues are nice, but contributions are gratefully appreciated as well. Remember, its all deductible. We are an IRS approved non-profit educational society.

Membership Schedule

7.00	Family
5.00	Individual
3.00	Student
25.00	Contributing
100.00	Life

An envelope is enclosed, to make giving, easier.

Upcoming Events

July 8-9	-	Upton Cabin - Trail Marking, Metal Detecting etc.
Sept. 9-10	-	Upton Cabin - work weekend and research on trail.
Oct. 8, Sunday	-	Annual Meeting & Dinner place to be announced at a later date.

Society News

The 1988 Annual Meeting was held on October 9th at the Dresden Inn. Mr. Jay Adams, Curator of Fort Western gave an interesting talk. The food and company good. Mrs. Ruth Brown, our Treasurer for two years, resigned. She did an outstanding job and will be missed. Your author Bob Cunningham, is now President - Treasurer. A new Director was appointed - Mrs. Barbara R. Hartford, of East Boothbay. Barbara is Executive Director of the Boothbay Historical Society, and brings much practical intelligence to our Board.

Two Directors Meetings have been held this spring at the Colburn House. The next will be August 6th.

Personal News

Our cherished Secretary - Mrs. Jannice Baker, under went disc surgery on June 14th and will be in Maine Medical Center, Portland, Maine for about a week. Then home to Kelley Road, Pittston. Her mailing address is RD #4 Box 7730, Gardiner, Maine 04345 - send her a get well card, and speed her recovery! Ken Taylor, of Anson & Eustis, had a rough winter, but is feeling better and attended the June 11th Directors Meeting at the Colburn House. Joe Brown, of Sudbury, Mass. retired from Raytheon, and then took on a volunteer administrative job with AARP as New England Coordinator. He and Ruth recently attended their convention in Denver.

Cecil Pierce is still pulling lobster pots, and taking fly-fishing trips to far-a-way places for fun.

Our AEQ-75 Director Col. Thornton McGlamery, has sold his building and business in Hallowell (The Marvelous Merry-Go-Round) and is in the middle of building a new house on the lake in Winthrop.

Books

We understand that a reprint of Justin Smith's March to Quebec is now available from Heritage Books, Suite 109, 1540 East Pointer Ridge Place, Bowie, MD 20716. The price is $25.00 plus $3.00 UPS.

Also we are advised that Mr. Jack Bales, of Fredericksburg, VA has completed a new book about Kenneth Roberts. It is expected the Kennebunkport Historical Society and the Kenneth Roberts Centennial Commission will sponsor a book signing event in August.

All for now. Thank you in advance for sending your check. It will make my job easier.

Bob Cunningham

Robert A. Cunningham, President
& Treasurer